

Kevin V. Maltby, Associate

"I am a results-oriented person, so my satisfaction comes from getting positive results for my clients. Reputations are built on results and professionalism, so I work hard every day to be an effective advocate for my clients. As a former Assistant District Attorney, I was able to forge strong relationships with not only the state and local police departments, but also with victims. That experience helps me to be more effective when representing my clients."
