

Kenneth J. Albano, Shareholder

"As a business and transactional attorney, my focus is on detail. I strive to be overly protective of my client's needs and at the same time provide quality and cost effective advice. I find that keeping a client fully informed at every step of a transaction is also beneficial and translates into a successful result and satisfied client."

Areas of Practice:

Banking & Finance, Business & Corporate, Healthcare, Municipal

Education:

Western New England College, J.D., 1985
Providence College, B.S., Accounting, 1982

Bar & Court Admissions:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Director: Behavioral Network, Inc, 1988-Present
Member: Tax Section Council of MA Bar Association, 2000-2002
Member: Monson Zoning Board of Appeals, 1990-1993
Instructor: "Business Law," Western New England College, 1990

Awards, Achievements & Appointments Include:

Town Counsel, Monson, Massachusetts, 1993-Present
Town Counsel, Southwick, Massachusetts, 2002-Present

Publications & Lectures Include:

Lecturer: Buying and Selling a Privately Owned Business in Massachusetts, Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, October 2007
Co-Author: "The HIPPA Learning Curve - Practical Application of the Law is Not Always and Matter of Black and White,"
Healthcare News, November 2003
Author: "Liquor License Lessons," Business West, June 2003
Author: "Tourism Is A Two Way Street," Valley Business Outlook, April 2003
Lecturer: "Partnerships, LLC's & LLP's," Organization and Operation in Massachusetts, 2001

