

Kenneth J. Albano Shareholder

Ken is a partner in the firm and member of Bacon Wilson's corporate, commercial, and municipal law departments. For over 20 years, Ken has represented commercial banks in all aspects of lending and workout practices, coupled with representing closely held business entities in all aspects of operations. In addition, he currently serves as town counsel to local municipalities, including the towns of Monson, Southwick, and Holland.

Areas of Practice:

Banking & Finance, Business & Corporate, Healthcare, Municipal

Education:

Western New England College, J.D., 1985
Providence College, B.S., Accounting, 1982

Bar & Court Admission:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Member: MA Municipal Law Association, 2010 - Present
Member: United Way Campaign Cabinet, 2010 - Present
Member: Springfield Tax Club, 1992 - 1996
Member: Monson Zoning Board of Appeals, 1990 - 1993
Instructor: "Business Law," Western New England College, 1990

Awards, Achievements & Appointments Include:

Town Counsel: Southwick, Massachusetts, 2002 - Present
Town Counsel: Monson, Massachusetts, 1993 - Present
Town Counsel: Holland, Massachusetts, 2011 - Present
Recipient: Charitable Leadership Award, March of Dimes, 2011

Publications & Lectures Include:

Quoted: Next Question... Advisors Stress the Importance of Succession Planning, BusinessWest, January 5, 2009
Author: Choosing the Right Entity Type - Make Smart Decisions to Protect Your Liability and Tax Status, Business West, October 13, 2008
Author: 409A and You - The Rules Are Changing, So Beware of Costly Non-compliance Penalties, Business West, June 23, 2008
Author: To Be or Not to Be - Factors to Consider When Contemplating Starting a New Business, Business West, March 31, 2008
Author: Some Legal Considerations for the Process of Going Green, Business West, July 9, 2007

