

Lisa L. Halbert, Associate

"I like the tangibility of estate planning. Much of it is about working the numbers and finding solutions to challenges. I get great satisfaction from making my clients understand their complex issues by breaking them down into simple pieces. Solving their problems makes me happy."

Areas of Practice:

Estate Planning, Real Estate & Zoning

Education:

Western New England College School of Law, J.D.
Amherst College, B.A.

Bar & Court Admission:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Member: Board of Directors, The Montessori School of Northampton; also Treasurer, and member of Executive Committee
Volunteer: Habitat For Humanity

Publications & Lectures Include:

Author: "When a Loved One Passes Away - Steps to Take Even If You Think There Is No 'Probate' Estate," BusinessWest,
November 13, 2006

