

Dennis G. Egan, Jr., Associate

"Working with clients is the most rewarding part of being a lawyer. It is very gratifying to help business owners that have lost their way get back on track by straightening out their corporate governance issues. I enjoy helping businesses get back on track. I also enjoy counseling my clients about their business' succession planning issues. Everybody will eventually transition out of their companies, and I help my clients be forward-thinking."

Areas of Practice:

Banking & Finance, Business & Corporate, Real Estate & Zoning

Education:

Western New England College, J.D., 2004
University of Massachusetts, B.A., 1998

Bar & Court Admission:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
State of Connecticut

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Chairman of the Board of Directors: Junior Achievement of Western Massachusetts, 2009 - 2011
Member: Board of Directors, The Children's Chorus of Springfield, 2009 - Present
Vice Chair: Community Preservation Committee, Longmeadow, MA, 2009 - Present
Member: Board of Directors, Irish Cultural Center at Elms College
Member: Community Preservation Committee, Longmeadow, MA

Awards, Achievements & Appointments Include:

Graduate: Affiliated Chambers of Greater Springfield Leadership Institute, 2008
Winner: National First Amendment Moot Court Competition, 2004

Publications & Lectures Include:

Author: Building Momentum for Green Leases - They Make Good Sense for Landlords and Tenants Alike, BusinessWest, August 31, 2009
Quoted: Next Question... Advisors Stress the Importance of Succession Planning, BusinessWest, January 5, 2009
Author: Choosing the Right Entity Type - Make Smart Decisions to Protect Your Liability and Tax Status, Business West, October 13, 2008
Author: 409A and You - The Rules Are Changing, So Beware of Costly Non-compliance Penalties, Business West, June 23, 2008
Author: To Be or Not to Be - Factors to Consider When Contemplating Starting a New Business, Business West, March 31, 2008
Author: Some Legal Considerations for the Process of Going Green, Business West, July 9, 2007

