

Julie R. Lackner, Associate

"The best part of my practice is being able to be a trusted advisor to a client and their family. Whether they just need some routine documents prepared, or they are going through a tough time in their life, it's gratifying to know that I can help. Clients can trust me to take care of all their estate planning needs."

Areas of Practice:

Estate Planning & Elder

Education:

Boston College Law School, J.D.
Princeton University, A.B

Bar & Court Admission:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Member: Board Development Committee, Girl Scouts of Central and Western MA, 2011 - 2013
Member: Northampton Area Young Professionals

Professional Associations & Memberships Include:

Member: Hampden County Bar Association
Member: Hampshire County Bar Association
Member: National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys
Member: Estate Planning Council of Hampden County

Awards, Achievements & Appointments Include:

Highly proficient in French and Romanian

Publications & Lectures Include:

Lecture: Taking Control of Your Future: A Legal Checkup, May 11, 12, 18, and 26, 2011
Lecture: All About Medicaid, April 18, 2011
Author: "Electing Small Business Trusts: An Effective way to Plan for Succession in a Closely Held Business," Business West, March 14, 2011
Author: "The CLASS Act Health Reform Adds a Twist to Long-term Care Insurance," Business West, January 17, 2011

