

Stephen N. Krevalin, Shareholder

"Over the last 25 years I have learned that it is critical to listen to my clients and hear their main concerns. Then I can offer an overview of the law that addresses their concerns in the proper perspective. My domestic clients are fraught with emotionally charged troubles, so it is important for me to get a clear picture before mapping out legal strategies. In addition, my corporate clients need a distinct plan of action, and that is also best determined through careful consideration of their concerns and issues. As for Bacon & Wilson's overall practice, as Managing Partner, I am committed to result oriented policies. We are renowned for an exemplary work product and a zealous representation of our clients, and I am proud to uphold that tradition."
