

Kathryn S. Crouss, Associate

Katie is a member of the litigation department and handles all aspects of civil litigation, including employee and management side employment law litigation, personal injury, and domestic relations litigation.

Areas of Practice:

Domestic Relations & Family, Employment, Litigation, Personal Injury

Education:

Western New England College School of Law, J.D., Cum Laude, 2012
Allegheny College, B.A. in Political Science

Bar & Court Admission:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
State of Connecticut

Professional & Community Activities Include:

Member: Law Review Advisory Committee

Awards, Achievements & Appointments Include:

Recipient: CALI Award for Excellence: Non-profit Law Spring, 2011; Federal Litigation: pension rights Fall, 2011

Notary public

Dean's List: Western New England University School of Law

Editor-in-Chief: Western New England Law Review, 2011-12

Staff Member: Western New England Law Review, 2010-11

Author: Welcome to The Jungle: Salespeople and the Administrative Exemption to the Fair Labor Standards Act, Vol. 34, Western New England Law Review, 2012

Publications & Videos Include:

- Author: Law: Don't Fall Into Common Traps: An Employer's Obligations to Sick and Disabled Employees, BusinessWest, May 6, 2014
- Author: The Bay State's Personnel Records Law, BusinessWest, November 4, 2013
- Author: Bullying in the Workplace, BusinessWest, July 30, 2013
- Law Review Note: Welcome to The Jungle: Salespeople and the Administrative Exemption to the Fair Labor Standards Act, published in Western New England Law Review, volume 34

Bacon \ Wilson
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

SPRINGFIELD WESTFIELD NORTHAMPTON AMHERST
413.781.0560 \ BaconWilson.com \ KCrouss@BaconWilson.com

