

Donna L. Wexler Shareholder

"Some attorneys are very aggressive or antagonistic, trying to intimidate those on the opposing side of an issue. That doesn't work for me. I would rather be friendly and open in my quest to find a resolution that satisfies both sides. I prefer to negotiate rather than take a hard stance, and I believe that this preserves the integrity of all parties."

Donna handles all types of commercial and residential real estate transactions for buyers, sellers, and lenders, including commercial loans. She also represents clients in landlord/tenant matters. Her additional specialties include domestic relations and family law, and estate planning and administration.
