

Daryl M. Johnson

Associate

"My first priority is always to help clients have a comfortable understanding of the legal issues affecting them, and to provide constructive solutions. My professional experience encompasses many different areas of the law, from corporate and business interests, to estate planning and probate, family law, and criminal and civil litigation. This broad foundation, together with a longtime personal interest in residential real estate and landlord/tenant issues, allows me to provide clients with strategic representation and effective resolutions."
