

Lisa L. Halbert

Associate

"I like the tangibility of estate planning. Much of it is about working the numbers and finding solutions to challenges. I get great satisfaction from making my clients understand their complex issues by breaking them down into simple pieces. Solving their problems makes me happy."

Professional & Community Activities

- Board of Directors, Lathrop Communities
- Board of Directors, Montessori School of Northampton
- National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys
- Hampshire County Bar Association

Publications & Lectures

- Lecturer on Elder & Estate Planning issues at Lifepath (fka Franklin County Homecare Corp.), November 2018
- A Year-End Review, BusinessWest, December 30, 2014
- Qualifying for Medicaid: What Families Need to Know, Healthcare News, July 2014
- Law: A Never Ending Process, BusinessWest, December 17, 2013
- Call Your Lawyer—Don't Put Off Estate Planning for Your College-aged Children, Healthcare News, July 2013
- Crosses to Bear: Health Care Proxies and How Religious Beliefs May Affect Them, Healthcare News, July 2012
- The Sandwich Generation: Coping with Being Stuck in the Middle, Caring for Parents and Kids, Healthcare News, June 1, 2012
- Asset Protection Planning: Strategies for Saving Your Money from Nursing Home Expenses, Live Well, Daily Hampshire Gazette, February 15, 2012
- Quoted, Staying in Control: The Health Care Proxy Is a Tool for All Ages, Healthcare News, October 2007
- When a Loved One Passes Away, BusinessWest, November 13, 2006

Contact

lhalbert@baconwilson.com
(413) 781-0560

Practice Areas

Estate Planning
Elder Law
Residential Real Estate
Tax

Bar & Court Admission

Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Education

- Western New England College School of Law, J.D.
- Amherst College, B.A.

