

Jaime B. Margolis, Associate

"My work with couples, children, and families is focused on outcomes. I encourage clients to consider not only the immediate future, but also long-term impact. In matters related to custody of children or the dissolution of a marriage, emotions often run high. Parents – and their attorneys – have to work together to address issues like dividing assets, planning for education expenses, or creating two households from one. My legal practice is focused on best outcomes for children and the adults in their lives. That's important to me."
