Teresa E. Dupere

REAL ESTATE/TITLE COUNSEL

"I blend my passion for history with the thrill of detective work, unraveling the hidden stories behind every property's past."

Teresa is a dedicated real estate attorney with over 15 years of experience, currently specializing in the in-depth review and validation of property titles to ensure they are clear and marketable. With a sharp eye for detail and a thorough understanding of real estate law, Teresa prepares accurate title reports and curative recommendations, working closely behind the scenes with title companies and closing teams to resolve issues efficiently and mitigate risks before transactions close. Her expertise supports seamless residential and commercial real estate deals by delivering reliable, precise title work that protects all parties involved. Teresa is dedicated to upholding the highest standards of accuracy and professionalism in every examination.
